

SATURDAY EVENING CO-HEADLINERS

Nationally acclaimed

THE SMALL GLORIES

The Small Glories, a roots powerhouse duo, hails all the way from Winnipeg, CANADA and consist of Cara Luft & JD Edwards. Straight out of the gate these two veteran singer/songwriters built an international buzz around their tight harmonies, emotional authenticity, explosive live performances and equally well-matched guitar prowess. Luft packs a mean banjo as well.

Many know Cara as a founding member of country/folk sweethearts The Wailin' Jennys. Their 2016 debut album "Wondrous Traveler" was nominated for two Canadian Folk Music Awards and found its way onto many critic's Top 10 lists across North America and Europe. "The Small Glories are the ultimate: two amazing solo performers who somehow manage to melt into one entity, creating incredible harmonies that still raise the hairs on the back of my neck as I write." – Jennifer Ives, AD, Live from the Rock Music Festival. The duo tours almost continuously, finding themselves on stages from London to Philadelphia, Vancouver to Australia and beyond. Listen to The Small Glories here: www.youtube.com/watch?v=DghNgN6lJSg

AND SUGAR AND THE MINT

Sugar and the Mint, a vibrant, very talented, young band ranging in ages from 18-22, hails from Prescott, AZ and is bringing new energy to traditional Americana music. The band recreates old-time sounds, yet pushes arrangements and originals into amazing contemporary, innovative shapes and forms and offer an exciting, spirited take on folk and bluegrass. They have shared the bill with the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Emmylou Harris, Punch Brothers, Jerry Douglas, the Sam Bush Band and more.

In 2017, the band took first place in the prestigious Telluride

Bluegrass Festival Band Contest. Since their win in 2017, the band has been touring from coast to coast, with a history of sold-out shows in the western states. Listen to Sugar and the Mint here: <https://youtu.be/18kCrcU9ma4>.
